No.37-PAR (IAS)/8P-65/2016

Howrah, Dated :10/01/2022

ORDER

As per provisions of IAS (Recruitment) Rules 1954, State Government follows the norms for awarding promotion to the Senior Time Scale of Level -11 of Pay Matrix of I.A.S. (Pay) Rules, 2016 from Junior Scale (level-10) that the concerned officer must pass the departmental examination completely.

Accordingly, the IAS officers (R.R) who could not pass departmental examination completely within stipulated period and subsequently passed the departmental examination including Bengali, are allowed promotion to Senior Time Scale (Level-11) from Junior scale (Level-10) with effect from the date of passing of departmental examination. As a result their fixation of pay in promotion scale becomes lower than the pay of their batch mates of same allotment year and the same may not be restored, even after passing of the departmental examination.

In the above context, it is ordered that in such cases, IAS Officers (RR) who have been promoted to the Senior Time scale with effect from the date of passing of departmental examination completely, shall be allowed fixation benefit from the date of entitlement, notionally, and actual effect shall be allowed from the date of actual promotion, as per decision of the Departmental Promotion Committee so that their pay may be at par with other batch mates of the same allotment year.
